Cuyahoga County Prosecutor Michael C. O'Malley Announces the Indictment of Gregory Moore in the 2013 Downtown Cleveland Homicide of Aliza Sherman

CLEVELAND - Cuyahoga County Prosecutor Michael C. O'Malley announced that a Cuyahoga County grand jury has returned an indictment charging Gregory Moore, 51, in the 2013 downtown Cleveland homicide of Aliza Sherman.

On March 24, 2013, Aliza Sherman arrived for a meeting with her divorce attorney, Gregory Moore, at 55 Erieview Plaza in downtown Cleveland. While waiting outside the Stafford Law Company office building, she was stabbed multiple times. Afterward, Aliza Sherman called the police. A good Samaritan found her lying on the sidewalk and also called the police. She was transported to a nearby hospital and pronounced deceased.

The investigation was conducted by the Ohio Attorney General's Bureau of Criminal Investigation and the Cleveland Division of Police, with assistance from the Cleveland Office of the FBI and the Cuyahoga County Sheriff's Department. Moore was arrested by the U.S. Marshals around 3:30 p.m. on May 2, 2025, in the vicinity of Austin, Texas.

"The Sherman family has waited over a decade for answers regarding their mother's homicide," said Prosecutor O'Malley. "Through the tenacious work of multiple law enforcement agencies, evidence was accumulated that paints the unmistakable picture that Gregory Moore orchestrated and participated in the brutal murder of Aliza Sherman."

"Since receiving the request in June of 2021 to lead the Aliza Sherman cold case investigation, BCI's agents have spent thousands of hours applying advanced technology and implementing investigative techniques to help solve this homicide," Ohio Attorney General Dave Yost said. "BCI is grateful for the family's trust, patience, and confidence in our investigation that led to today's indictment and arrest."

"The successful conclusion of this case highlights the coordinated efforts between the FBI, local law enforcement, and the Cuyahoga County Prosecutors Office and serves as an important reminder of our commitment to the relentless pursuit of justice for victims and their families," said Cleveland Office of the FBI Special Agent in Charge Gregory Nelsen.

The Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's Office declines to interview or comment further at this time.

On May 2, 2025, Gregory Moore was indicted on the following charges:

- One count of Aggravated Murder
- One count of Conspiracy
- Six counts of Murder (Murder A and Murder B)
- Two counts of Kidnapping
